

Artist Statement; 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Daniel Turrentine

Art has been a friend of mine since childhood. Over the years I've learned how to express that shared experience with the heart of a child. And with each piece I grow in that ability. Each finished piece is like a mirror that teaches me more about myself. And this is because I share it with other people who always see things that I don't. This is also why I continue to produce art. For the possibility that these pieces will have a positive affect on others resulting from conversations had while viewing my heartfelt expressions. Artists centuries before me & even now have impacted my life in a positive way. So my hope is to do the same for others.
