

Artist Name:

~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~ Felicia Hale

"Feeling my way through Chaos"

The reason for this piece was because during my time of incarceration, I have encountered a lot of trials, tribulations, gains, losses, deaths and life. Sometimes being in your own head can be a very dangerous situation / experience. I had to allow God to take control so He could guide me through life. I learned that only He could get me to the other side of chaos.

— ~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~ Felicia Hale

"HE LOVES ME NOT"

This painting represents me being a survivor of Domestic Violence. Being in that type of situation to tend to be ashamed, guilty, & hopeless. I pledge to speak out, tell my story, empower and encourage someone who finds themselves in those shoes to speak up and speak loud. Bringing awareness to Domestic Violence is the only way to save people's lives.

— Felicia Hale