

Artist Name: Halu

Some of my best work (to me) is made when I feel down, don't get me wrong I've done good work in the best of moods Its almost an... emotional connection to the art.

I like dark colors because I want what I'm making to stand out from a distance, been some time since I've worked with graphite and charcoal is a new medium I'm experimenting with. Its difficult but looks well

The Themes kinda created themselves I started drawing a shark and everything can after it when I began thinking of Black women's struggle.
Some with the "Force" I made a few lines and it evolved
