Hello again, i have Been an artist for Almost 30 seeing it come to life. i Cant really say i have a traditional style i just love the arts. it has helped me get through some hard times. i have a motto "Art Saves lives"! i love to help others find their creative exspression. and i hope one day my Children will come to love the arts. when i get into my art i just go with the flow i make a cup of coffee do some small scetching, from there i gain a litte ^{inspiretron} ~~inspiration~~ and start my day, i am an artist almost 10-12 hours a day. i live and breath it. i just hope that with my Art i Can help others to be Confident in their own exspression.
