

Artist Statement: 26th Annual Exhibition of Art by Michigan Prisoners

Artist Name: Ryan Smith

Inspiration has had a instant affect on my life, even in the later years of my stay. I'm thankful to be blessed with installments from love.
I've found all the powers of Connection inside of ones brain. I've found it to be the greatest gates to Center our Spirits and Dreams. Personally I'm nothing without the good/light.

Meditation thru Study & Art holds brilliance inside ^{of} Abstractions eyes and teeth. It gives gifts of healing and shows me that theres more is life than computation or any algorithm can hold. Proving inside each and everyone of us holds endless possibilities of hidden Masterpieces, emotions come forth out from underneath. remembrance & beauty/pain One's bleeding blending oils. Fortunately solitude has breast me something that makes no sense at all, Art & the life she holds inside the Eye of the beholder... One's Soul.

This is the first time I've pushed my name and feelings/emotions into the universe for view. I for the most part try and stay hidden I'm strongly being lead deep inside of my heart to take some very steps in up & coming years, but have no legs or walk outside of these walls physically. My "wish" if a chance would be to be a gravitational pull towards a trustful hand/Heart for direction to show/create/provide a means in meaning and cause to give back to the Earth. I've never calculated a amount to consciousness but so year I share my love & Help others, so I ask How? This piece to the wuzzle might sound easy to some, but for some like myself, the Easy Things/problems in life just seem to be the most difficult to understand. Disability just needs a helping hand...

A plus one to equal balance
