

Artist Name: Derricus Lambert A.K.A. JABARI Anyika

Maturing is a part of life, and a person's level of rapidness of maturity has to do with their own experiences and efforts made to mature. As a Man, As a Father, As a human being, I have chosen to look for the good in "bad" situations and to always challenge myself daily to be different, to do different, to be the Man that I was created to be. To first, make myself happy and to always take time for my mental stability. Because if I'm right & my mind is right, then I can be right for my family and for humanity. Abstract has always been my first love in the art world. I love color and vibrant patterns. So this year I chose to cross over into the world of water color & it's the greatest! I should have done it sooner!!! What you have seen today reflects my personal growth, change, & development over these last 11 months. Things within my life, who I am as a man, as a father, as a cultured man living in America. I owe this growth, change, & development to not only myself for putting in the work & efforts. But to my two beautiful daughters Derriana & Nikita who push & challenge me to be better every single day. They are my inspiration. They are the ones who keep me going. My FUTURE!
