Emotions I Hold . .

Since being locked up i realized this place will put you in the most vulnerable state.
making it very easy for a woman to take full advantage of you, your state of mind, feelings, and your emotions . . .

This piece plays a very significant part in the emotional battle i have endured . . .

Hope yall enjoy what i've created from the pain i've experienced throughout my incarceration . .

Thank you!!
