I enjoy creating things that brings a smile or sparks a conversation. Art is subjective and I know that not everyone that views my work will see it as anything special. I am ok with that. I sometimes view others work and don't understand what they are trying to say. At the end of the day though we are all individuals equally, deserving of respect, love and freedom of expression. ~~It~~ⁱⁿ this age where everyone, or almost everyone has their nose buried in their phones my work has caused you to converse with the person next to you then I have accomplished what I set out to do. Who knows you just might catch yourself with a smile on your face.

I hope you appreciate my effort.
Thank You. Chad
