

Artist Name: NINO TANZINI

My Name is NINO TANZINI, Tho most know me By Hush. I consider myself a portrait artist that loves to express my want for change or cause in my work. This year I submitted 3 pieces to Be considered for selection, all different in meaning But have one thing in common, Love. The first is a portrait of Iryna Zarutskya who tragically lost her life on a subway full of people at only 23 years old for no reason. I chose to Remember her Because she was the American dream and we live in a world now where murder is just a Briefing on the daily news. I hope it may start a conversation on mental health and the need for help. The second piece is a play off the old footprints story my mother used to have hanging in my childhood home. I was away from Christ for 2 decades and Blamed him for my hardship, I realized those time of Blame it was him carrying me through my tragic times and He carried me and my Backpack of Heartache. The last piece "Time" is Just that, Lost in time and what I Took from people who Love me. Trapped in the clock representing lost time as my heart Bleeds and the flower is slowly dying in her hands representing the time I took from the ones I Love.

Thank you for viewing my art and my GOD Bless you. Stay Gold
