So I hope you enjoyed this year's paintings. I can't take all the credit for these. You see to yours I've been a Christian. But this year I asked each time I painted for the Holy Spirit to help me. And since he's always with me. He did. I also got advice from my talents on what works or doesn't work. "Ladylady" to "note" were a gift come true. You see everything is from God. The tiny real ladybugs that she holds on her finger as she has ladyvisions. To the imaginary dragons as the girl plays her violin to her mother. Each image is from God. He gives us our imaginations, He gives us talent, desires, and directs our feelings, thoughts, and ideas. Each of us has something we can do and do well. My advice is "ABC," always be creating. When you're not with your hand on a loom or looking for that special someone. Never listen when someone says you should act or do something a certain way. Trust your feelings. Paint, draw, study, learn study people you admire, respect and want to be like. It's not wrong to want to be like someone, to mimic their style, and make it your own. Always make it your own. There is no wrong way to art. I wish I could share all my works with you but some art is adult oriented and peccap limits what we submit. So I look forward to your thoughts and comments. I hope to hear from you. Tell me what works, give me your thoughts, your ideas, your wishes, and give me your critiques on these images. If there is something you would like to see or want. Just let me know. I know the person that purchases one of these will enjoy it for years to come.

Thank you for your support.
