

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: ~~Christopher Brian Stock - I'm still stuck off a criminal, I didn't~~

Some people are already in prison and they will never step a foot inside a prison, hating life or their job or they feel "trapped" or can't be themselves for whatever reason. I can relate to feeling trapped and hopeless, thankfully prison has saved my life. I'm a mentor in a tutor in trade school and completed two trades. I've learned what a broken cycle is and with my parole I look forward to showing the system does work. I am thankful because I'm free & I haven't even left prison yet.

this is short to the point.

~~to show the cycle of crime was taught to me.~~
