

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Don Jay the Visionary

I decided to do the log Cabin, because its a long way from home. A place I would one day go to become ONE with nature and to clear my mind of all negativity while building on the positive.

^{True} ~~Go~~ Blue is the state I am proud to be apart of. As shown on the cup ^{is a Scott} ~~and~~ mark, it shows that Nothing is perfect. There are imperfection in everything. My state not perfect, but I wouldn't want to be in no other state.

Go Lions. You can hear our roar many states away. its the ~~the~~ city I was born and been a lions fan from day 1. This year is our time to roar through everybody.
