

Artist Name: Christopher Dankovich

I grew up in prison. I came in at fifteen, and have spent twenty years inside. I was a really stupid kid with, for some reason, an ego. For part of my life, either that ego, or prison — or both — defined who I am, because there wasn't much else there. Once I glimpsed that, I didn't want to be any of that any more.

Love made the difference. Love led to faith. I'm still in the same body, and my body is still in prison, but I'm happier, more at peace, and more loved than I ever have been from choosing love and faith.

Art, at its best, uplifts our consciousness just as love and faith do. I'm not sure my art will uplift anyone's consciousness, but hopefully it uplifts you a bit or at least makes you smile or think a positive thought.

Love and Peace to You,

Chris
