

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Out My Window is a painting of just what it says. It was turning dark and got dark, so fast that the sky looked just like this, and the beauty of this is that the dark hides all the ugly of being in prison. Rooted, well I'm not going to say to much about it, because everyone has a different perspective, and I don't want mess with that.

Flower Garden is just what it is, I painted some flowers. I love to paint and its very therapeutic, and helps me get through many days under the circumstances. I would like to thank Mrs. T for all of her help and encouragement. She used to have a painting class here at Brooks Corr.

Facility. Maybe some day we'll have someone that can take over for her, but they'll never be able to replace her. God Bless to all that read this.
