

Buffalo Bill of Rights

467-20

Hagar and Ishmael

I have a desire for my work to have sublime erudition in edification in all aspects of not solely religion but spirituality and to touch basis with the human race. In the great statement of Malcolm X "we are all black just different shades"