

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: David Lester 720334

Life is too short, and Time is long, But when you are alone In This world, you Feel Like nothing, people look at use Behind This Bars, Like Lost ^{Souls,} ~~see~~ The worst of The worst. They watch TV-shows on what They Think prison is, And Judge use for nothing They know, But They will never take A chance to get to know us. we are Judge By The world, But never gave A 2nd chance in Life. we are forgotten, and never no one will try to find use. But If ~~people~~ people even knew, we are looking for love, help and someone to care for us. we are still A human Bean, we are A ~~be~~ live. Yes we miss up But when you look at Times that others did, But never been CAUGHT. No one Judges you. When I do my Art on Black Boards, I show people that Beauty can come from The Darkness, and I want people to look at This to feel The warm happiness that A person in prison can Be Alone, Judge, and have no one in his life, But wakes up every Day with A smile and hope That one Day someone will come out and touch my Heart Like I have.
