

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Tr Slaughter

Thank you for viewing my art, I hope you dig the style. I've drawn my entire life and always show rebellion in it. This particular piece is to show the mental suffering along with physical suffering for speaking out against the tortures of prison. You are no longer an individual, no longer viewed as a human, just a number. It is difficult to hold onto your sanity when you see the corruption all around you and you have no one to tell, no one looks at this place, no one cares. My art is not for sale through this avenue because I do not support the profits of the DOC if I have a choice. I am free to be contacted, I may even just give it to you, whenever you want it, as long as they get nothing.

Always Bellows, Tr Slaughter
