

Artist Name: ~~PCAPS~~ Mr. Grumpy

As of June 11, 2025 I am no longer a lifer. I was pushed before the parole board w/ basically 6 days to be ready in August & was deferred for a psych exam... I was due to be resentenced as a juvenile lifer in Dec 3 2024 so, the legal factors & preparations for ^{the} parole hearing left me very little time to complete new art but my parole is looking very promising & I always want to participate w/ PCAP's if I am able to so I hope that the 2 pieces I had done in 2019 work & catch the eyes of art lovers. After 35 years in prison I hope to actually witness this coming show myself & represent the released artists of PCAPS Proudly & Sincerely w/ Integrity & Proprieties that will shine a light where darkness is expected. Much love & respect to all of you @ PCAPS and the participants... & especially to all of you guests & visitors of the exhibition.
