

Artist Name: Crestrey Thomas

The passion of Christ is often seen as His ultimate sacrifice for humanity. I think His example of having total faith in all aspects of life that peace, love and law through God is the path to God. His passion was His way of life, and the passion still lives today like an old painting seen for the first time; amazing with passion.