Colors make people happy, and it brightens up people day.
My collection is called, "Colors intertwine with Strength".

The craftsmanship and hours that goes into creating pieces is well thought out with time and care. You can express yourself with different color schemes. Make small or big patterns as you wish.

One day my friend was making a blanket for someone mom for mothers day. I ask can they teach me and I've been hooked with one hook and stitch at a time. It confronts me and put me at ease.
