Artist Name: Anumkee Mukwura / Thunder Bear

Arii (Hello) I'm a mix breed native, who follows the Red Road, I enjoy working with my hand, my normal art work is bead work and leather craft, but since my eyes are getting old, I'm learning how to draw, and use ink, pencil and pastels, the art work I do is Tribal, the 3 I'm sending, reflects what I'm thinking, one is called "A Reflection of ~~the~~ ^{those} ~~we~~ we Love", the second one, deals with our youth today, our young kwe's (female) finding there way back to the Red Road, I call it "Rebirth", and no #3 a drawing stating my respect to my elders, called "Honoring our Elders in our Smoke", drawing has open my mind to other drawing designs, keeps me busy and peaceful in heart and soul.

I thank you for allowing me to show my work. Peace be with you, and never stop your wonderful program, it help us all in so many ways. I'm first Nation Ojibwa Walpole Island, Blackfoot, Puerto Rican, and Samoan and follows each teaching for Peace, Harmony, in my daily life.
