The Banana Lisa, Summer Flowers

I have participated in the annual PCAP exhibition for many years and I have met many wonderful people along the way. With 2020 being my year of release from prison, this will be the last display of my artwork with PCAP.

Through the years, the PCAP exhibition, the staff the volunteers and the comments from visitors to the show, have been pivotal in building my confidence as an artist. Being involved with PCAP has given me creative inspiration, motivation and most importantly, hope.

When I walk out through the prison gates to begin my new life, I know without doubt that my future artistic ventures, will be a direct result of the creative influence PCAP has provided me.

To all of the PCAP staff, volunteers and the exhibition visitors, I thank you!
