When I choose my subject matter, it often reflects my mood at that time. I spend a lot of time reflecting on my children. I see myself with them in all aspects of their lives, even though I have not been present in their lives in 15 years. I still see them as 3 and 5 year old girls. Because of this, my paintings resemble them as they were preserved perfectly since the day I lost them. I pray that one day I will be blessed enough to see them and be part of their lives. Until then, I will pray "A Little Prayer."

"A Sheppard Rises" is a thought that even though Christ has departed from this world, on that day we all inherited the job of a sheppard. It is our duty to guide ourselves and others to the path of Christ so that we might live in His will. Only through Christ may we live forever.
