Artist Name: Camey Booms

With my art work my hope for others is to be the light in all things. Life is 100% what we make of it. The real power of living a successful life lies in being the light in the world. We channel our inner strengths to stand up and take charge of our path.

In my projects I hope you see color, creativity, passion and boldness; but I also hope you see love, hope, joy, happiness, peace, and understanding. When we have faith, we hold the key to living life.
