

Dan JR

799-20

Whitetail Deer

I started drawing to help pass the time away from being in Prison with the help of a few good friends who taught me how to draw. I experimented with doing Portraits and Drawing wildlife. I draw this deer to remind me of how much being outdoors means to me when you go for a walk with your son or dad to see the wildlife around you. This Drawing reminds me of the Whitetail Deer that My dad and I saw on one of our walks through nature.