Artist Name: @ Prison Art Collective

I love every single person who made PCAP a possibility. I am proudly getting out next year so this is my last time participating. But look for me on Instagram @ Prison Art Collective. I am trying to create a space for all who do art in prison a place to put up their projects to let more see in a year round fashion. With out PCAP many of us could show others our passion but once a year. So support us & follow my page & send artists there as well.

Next year I hope to be at U of M to volunteer & see the magic in person. Be well & Be kind to others
