Nano

This ~~is~~ is my 2nd year in PCAP, My art is a way for me to vent my emotions. It's always been an outlet for a Chicano kid from the Southwest side of Detroit. I give alot of myself in my Art. This year I switched it up a bit though. Last year I entered one ~~piece~~ project, This year I grew to five. The First is "Love Beyond The Wall" It Expresses the Pain of A young Hispanic American Lovers Pain after Prison, Becomes a Part of life. 2nd is "Broken time" It expresses the Dead time Feelings, that comes from Prison. 3rd is My first tags I used to spray on walls as a kid. "The Nano Bomb" I always make my love ones into there own personal Bombs. 4th is Eye for An Eye. Its just that simple growing up it was how I was told to live. Now we are adults and don't practice that lifestyle. 5th is "BiPolar Bear" Also was an original tag I did around 2008 now I updated it to suit the present time. Thank you for the support.
