

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Angela Kelsey ID Lydia Draven

I choose to make art as an outlet, when I'm feeling A certain way instead of being self-destructive I Channel my angst into something productive. To be able to create something beautiful out of inner Conflict or darkness is like a therapy. Art is a Comfort in a place where comforts, self expressions and individuality are few and far between.
