

Artist Name: Matthew Sallady

Art, for me, is like a good book, in the sense that I can escape into it. I tend to draw subject matter that I can emotionally attach to; photos of loved ones, or images that move me, iconic and obscure. I like to mostly use graphite. Maybe because black and white photos appeal to me. Pretty cool what you can do with a pencil and a lot of time.