

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Earl Kranz

This is my first piece. I've never taken art, but was a stage performer. I've always loved watching others create, and wanted to do the same.

I like drawings and paintings that are realistic. For this drawing, I chose a town outside of Heidelberg, Germany.
I like the clean lines, the beauty and old world feel.

I want others to feel the open spaces, the freedom of a quiet little village, To be transported back in time to simpler days.

I hope you enjoy this piece and it touches
you someplace deep inside, like it did me.
