Do You See What I See?

The following art pieces are born inspirations from ~~my point of view~~<sup>life experiences</sup>.

The piece w/ the chords represent us divided but wanting to come together and reaching for change. The bird piece is something that came to me and I always enjoyed beautiful birds. I found my interest for drawing behind walls but I always had a creative side side. I'm glad that I'm able to express myself through my art. I hope these pieces touch others' hearts like they touched mine.
