

Jessicca Case

450-20

Diamond

Art has always been a part of my ~~life~~ childhood growing up. originally my mother and brother introduced me to drawing as an acceptable means of expressing myself.
Throughout the years I have ~~used~~^{used} my art work as a means to help me cope with not only my incarceration but with all the underlining emotions and troubles mentally that come along with an incarcerated woman and mother.