Hidden Getaway

The main reason I do artwork is to give myself a release of stress that we feel every day. It allows me to escape this place, even for just a little while. It helps to get my mind off of all the prison politics and problems that go on, on a daily basis. That keeps me out of trouble. I never knew I had the talent or ability until I put my mind to it.

It also reminds me of the times I would be building things with my Dad. I can remember him explaining to me how to do certain things and why. All of this makes time go by faster and keeps my hands busy.

Thank you for your time and consideration and I hope you like my project.
