

Artist Name: David L. Saline

I don't normally draw anymore due to personal reasons, but when I ~~draw~~ I can create fabulous artwork. Most of the proceeds will go towards my Addiction Recovery Benefit Program, to help me & others recover from the monsters of addiction. My mentor and forever friend, counselor, author, Mr. Churchell, (Louis Churchwell), the one and only successful person in my life to teach me the life skills needed in order to live a successful life without drugs, or addiction, my personal gratitude goes to him. Most of the proceeds will also go towards Fighting Homelessness, including myself, I won't go into details about that, it's just hard for an artist to pay the cost of living in this world.
