

Town
694-20
Peace

This year was tough, getting something put together for the show. I go to college full time and have qualified for one degree already, and am working towards two more. College on top of working a full time, 8 in the morning to 8 at night, does not leave much time for art. I've submitted something for the past four years and this may be my last chance so I wanted to be involved.