Artist Name: Brian Stafford

Its my hope that the "sock snake" goes on to consume many many socks, like a disruptive amount of socks :
Its owner is gonna be five years old and I'm gonna tell her that the sock snake has an exclusive sock diet, especially (sp) cool looking socks. Its made of yarn & mischief.

The Blacklight painting style I've been up to for years now is coming along. notes of psychadellia, tones of looks-like-it-belongs-on-some-cool-persons-wall is what I'm going for.

The rest of the weird underground art I'm up to is going good. Various "BLACK FLAG COFFEE CUP" projects are sort of in the works, it by 'in the works' I mean shoved under beds, hung up on walls, or in general not right now up online where they should be :
Ah what can ya do? :)
