"Her Song" is a bit of nostalgia for me. The colors, style and image of 'i'll Suzy transport me back to another time; back to my youth — simpler times — the only time I remember being free, innocent and happy. I recall the adventure and discovery of them younger years... the magic of everything. Latin freestyle seemed to be the soundtrack to them days, giving life and energy to house parties, depth to young love and something to vibe out to. So this is a nod to some of the sounds that made me.
Freestyle Forever!
