

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Hello i'm Fred.

What a year this has been. I have found something I truly love. "ART" What the wonder of creativity in motion. This past year for me has been up & down. But the one thing i've been able to say has helped me is "putting paint on canvas" I have no idea where I would be if I didn't put paint to canvas. I hope people see me in the art I create. Most of all I hope people see the joy in each production i've created. So to the people thank you for supporting me. Any one who has received one of my production's thank you for seeing me inside each work of art. Thank you from me to you.
