

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Fredrick Brown III (Freed)

Hello, Once again this time of year is here, I get excited for the opportunity to share my vision's composed on canvas. I've grown so much as an artist over this past year, I see shapes and colors everywhere, So each moment I get to paint, I truly treasure it, I discovered a Love for Art just about three years ago, and it has opened me up to a language I for one never new existed. It's hard as an Artist no matter where your located, if its in society, or trapped away in the hidden hills of these prison communities. We strive to express ourselves in the most beautiful manner. Thank you for your willingness to see what my eyes have seen, and taking the time to view what's truly inside my heart
