"MENTAL HEALTH"

I Drew this Picture because I was in love and the girl cheated on me, had a baby and left me in here.

I was stressed out and so I tried to express my self through art. Looking back on it now, I dont think it was love I think it was lust. Love will have you thinking and feeling right, lust will have you thinking and feeling wrong. Either way it goes a heart break is hard to deal with. I hope Peace to whoever has one and they find a way to ^{channel} ~~chanet~~ that energy into something like I did. Thats why I called this "MENTAL HEALTH".
