

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: PCE Monqrose King (Shakeal Sawyer)

The reason I do art because it helps me 100% find peace within my inner self and to me poetry and drawings also bring peace and happiness to this world that we need to help us bring more harmony and unity to this world as I, my Craft overall 100% explain its self that's my goal to always do to help connect with those who crosses path with it that may give them a different view of life or to let them know they aren't alone and to show no matter where you at in life your thoughts that isn't afraid to positively express can bring you alot of blessing in life and take you to heights you never expected.

Please edit your Artist Statement to fit the space provided.