

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Terry Patterson

I choose to make art because it is one of the few things that I enjoy while in prison. I do art because it's an escape from the day if I have a project in mind, once I get started on it the whole day falls away. Doing art is always a new experiment in color and technique. I haven't been painting long so I'm always learning, whether I'm getting advice from someone or learning on my own.
