

Artist Statement: 26th Annual Exhibition of Art by Michigan Prisoners

Artist Name: Anthony Roesly

My name is Anthony Roesly. I have always had a Creative and abstract mind. When I became incarcerated I decided to use art as an outlet. #

I like to consider my style as an abstract mix of Geometrics and Monsters, and have been practicing a lot and branching out into Landscape and Nature objects as well as putting more ideas and thoughtfulness into what I draw.

Prior to my incarceration I used to Skateboard to process my stress and issues, and I like to incorporate Skate life and Culture into some of my works. Art has become my new outlet since I am unable to Skate for the next several years.
