

Artist Name: Earl Kranz

I am new to art. I started painting in 2022, and am on a journey of exploration. I am a Hyper Realist, though I occasionally wander.

I'm still exploring colors, as I break out of my conservative, introvert shell. Orange is my new favorite color, as it brings my current art to life for me and makes them "pop" and emotive.

I have also been exploring my cynicism with the justice system and society, as exhibited in my "Blind" Justice, and other pieces.

Art has allowed me to express the joy I feel and the beauty of the world around me in a tangible way.

I'm excited to continue this journey and find my "voice" as I seek my "style."
