"Dead to Sin" is a commentary on the attitude of many who have pursued worldly careers and found success through shrewd tactics and minimal effort. In other words their C average effort got them a degree and now they rule the world. Little do they know the world is dead, a slave to its sin, and they have one foot on top of the world while the other is already in the execution chamber.

The rich man had to admire the dishonest rascal for being so shrewd. And it is true that the children of this world are more shrewd in dealing with the world around them than are the children of the light. Luke 16:8

The process of creating this piece was fun and something new to me. It is my second drawing or painting I've done and I had quite a bit of inspiration from others while working on it. I actually originally intended for it to be monochrome except for the "C+" however the contrast of a vibrant world and an execution chamber worked out well.
