Artist Name: Jeffrey Kennedy

Female's Hidden Nature is about how Every Female Hides behind a mask, Never showing who they really are, it ~~shows~~ <sup>shows</sup> ~~shows~~ How all Females have an animalistic Nature that appears when situations demand it, it ~~is~~ is one of the First pictures I drew. I'm still New to Art so its the best i can do for Now, it was fun to draw something interesting to me.

Bear Paws was something I thought was cute, you don't see people wearing Animal onesies in the world, so i thought why not put on bear puppet gloves too, who knows maybe someone else will like it and who knows maybe someone will get their kid a cute animal onesie aswell, was fun to draw and learn shading in the process, one of the two first pictures I drew, hope people like it.
