

Artist Name: Jayson Grinstead

Inspired by classic American design and artwork of early American naturalists

I Developed a early interest in art as a child I traced many comic books

But I didnt find my way until I had more time to practice, I've worked hard with many diferent types of Art to improve and im still growing I always try to drawl outside my comfort zone

I realy like bright colors that explode off the canvas and Dark, Darks that show Detail

I realy enjoy taking a peace of art and making it something glorious

Im always trying to achieve the best possible art while constantly striving for ever greater artistic heights

thank you
