

Artist Name:

Christopher M. Campos

The art community in prison has made me into the artist I am today. I have fun creating ~~art~~<sup>art</sup> when I am oil painting. The paint, still wet, allows me to make easy changes when I change my mind. The "Monkey in Chaos" painting was painted while I was trying to mental escape the Jungle, prison. Art helps me communicate some feelings I sometimes am not aware I have at that present moment.
