

Artist Name: Mujasi Thato Kholwani

As a child i was told i didn't matter. Then, in 2011 i was given 20 years to life, i felt like i had never existed. So, writing, drawing became how i live on as i sit in purgatory dying daily.

Then it comes to my process, i colors i like shining light in this dark world. I see, my faith is where my passion comes from. And anything i do i put my faith into it.
