

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: MR. @ MI $ UNDERSTOOD

Hello world! It's been decades since I helped you throw me away. As much wisdom as I have acquired since 2003, there is always this socially awkward misunderstood individual, who only seems to understand the chaotic world that He created deep inside of his simple yet complicated, an prolifically minded self...

I've been using Art to express myself since I were very young. I didn't speak to others for a very long time, in grade school my art teacher let me draw my feelings. Surprisingly, people who didn't like me, gained understanding of me from my art. Art is the way I learned to ~~connect~~ with people. Poetry & Art, became my 1st language of communications. Ironically, I can't draw no better than I did in 4th grade, still, but I still provoke thought all the same. Hope you enjoy our communications, and if not, I understand why. I may not be for everybody. Peace...
